Robert Parker's The Wine Advocate has given 90 points to the "smooth and silky" Finca Sobreño Crianza 2009, 93 points to the "very fine and very elegant" Reserva 2008 and 92 points to "gorgeous" Ildefonso 2009, a new blend from two parcels of 80-years-old vines.

Made with Tinta de Toro grapes from 40+ years old vines and aged in French and American oak barrels, Finca Sobreño wines have been defined by Parker as "clean, balanced, well-crafted and fruit-laden without depriving them of personality and tipicity."
